Customer Reviews

WOW another good one from Stelljes. This one starts with a man on a mission. His mission? To kill all those involved in a death seven years ago. So far the man has killed three. The first victim won't be realized till much later. The two they know about appear to be the work of a serial killer. The FBI is now on the case. An FBI that is getting absolutely nowhere. No clues, no forensics and absolutely no idea who the murderer is or his motivation. Serial killer seems to fit the MO. He’s being called The Reaper. Michael (Mac) McRyan is now living in DC with Sally Kennedy. Sally works at the WH. It was a move Mac fully approved of. A move that kept Sally in his life. Not much of a trade off in his estimation. DC and Sally or St. Paul and visits to Sally. Nope. Not much of a trade off at all. Mac doesn’t have to work. He’s extremely wealthy. He’s already seen everything DC has to offer and he’s now bored silly. Mac’s more than ready to agree when Sally, at the request of the POTUS and the Judge, asks if he and Dara Wire would look into the murders and see if he and Dara can assist the FBI. Fresh eyes and a new perspective. Dara also agrees. A Dara who owns her own highly successful security business. A Dara who’s also ex-FBI who knows the ins and outs of the agency. A Dara who works quite well with Mac. Seems one of those killed was the daughter of a man who donated huge sums of money to the new President’s campaign and he’s using this fact to put pressure on to solve his daughter’s murder. The man has always been a player in DC. Oh boy. Mac hates politics almost as much as he hates the press. So begins one damned very fine read.
